WORKDAY TRANSITION UPDATE

PAYROLL & PERSONAL DATA | U.S. EMPLOYEES

As we move into the final stages and prepare to launch Workday on [DATE], we want to ensure that you are well-prepared for this important transition. Here are key points to keep in mind as we approach go-live:

KEY DATES AT A GLANCE

- Continue entering personal data changes in current systems through [DATE]
- Starting [DATE] — submit personal data changes in Workday via self-service
- Time-off freeze period: [DATE] – [DATE]
- Access to historical payslips and W2s available until [DATE]

PERSONAL DATA CHANGES

For U.S. employees with online access:

- Continue to enter personal data changes in [SYSTEM 1] or [SYSTEM 2] through [DATE]
- Continue to go to HR for any personal data changes (e.g., address, contact, marital status, etc.)
- Starting [DATE], you can submit personal data changes in Workday via self-service

PAYROLL TRANSITION

- [BUSINESS UNIT 1] employees: [SYSTEM 1] payroll will transition to Workday payroll
- [BUSINESS UNIT 2] employees: [SYSTEM 2] Payroll will transition to Workday payroll

- Starting [DATE], you will access Workday payslips and make payroll-related changes in Workday (Note: final paycheck in [SYSTEM 1] will be [DATE] and only visible in [SYSTEM 1])
- Your current direct deposit and tax withholding elections will be transitioned to Workday

- Access to view historical payslips and W2s will be available until [DATE]
- Continue to go to HR for any direct deposit accounts or tax withholdings changes until [DATE]

TIME OFF REQUESTS (PTO)

There will be a freeze period for recording time-off requests from [DATE] – [DATE]. This freeze period allows for time-off data transition from the current system to Workday. Employees will still be able to request time off during this period.

- Starting [DATE], you can submit time-off requests and view vacation balances via Workday self-service
- Time-off requests between [DATE] and [DATE] will follow the existing process
- Time-off requests for the dates of [DATE] – [DATE] should be requested via email for approval by manager (this is during the system freeze period)
- Existing time-off requests falling after [DATE] will need to be resubmitted in Workday

Stay Tuned for More

We are committed to ensuring a smooth transition for all team members. In the coming weeks, you can expect additional communications including where to find job aids that will help you navigate Workday's self-service capabilities. Thank you for your attention and stay tuned for more updates!
